

Ambipar Response is looking for a Waste Coordinator to join our team located in Fort Worth, TX. The ideal candidate will provide waste and compliance coordination of a variety of duties involved in environmental waste management.

Responsibilities:

- Maintaining the waste tracking spreadsheet daily
- Coordination/Oversight/Scheduling with waste transportation and disposal subcontractors
- Management of waste requests in accordance with associated client contracts
- Provide waste compliance and coordination support to internal and external clients
- Obtain disposal pricing as needed from various disposal outlets
- Gather internal information and direct communication with clients to prepare and submit hazardous and non-hazardous waste profiles
- Provide waste characterization guidance from field personnel
- Develop waste management opportunities with existing and future clients
- Review and prepare accurate waste shipping documentation (analytical requirements, profiles, manifests)
- Proactively communicating with client during all phases of waste projects
- Basic project accounting oversight: Development of proposals, cost estimates & purchase orders for waste transportation and disposal
- Point of contact for compliance related issues regarding wastes
- Perform other duties and tasks assigned by management

Requirements:

- Bachelor's degree in related science field (preferably chemistry/biology/environmental science)
- Minimum 3 years' experience
- Must have United States EPA RCRA, TSCA, and DOT regulatory knowledge & experience
- Knowledge of Texas regulations is highly desirable
- Knowledge of United States Oil and Gas industry is desirable
- CHMM certification is a bonus